

Aisha Jones
Sr. International Trade Specialist
U.S. Export Assistance Center, Baltimore

Aisha Jones is a Sr. International Trade Specialist at the U.S. Export Assistance Center (USEAC) in Baltimore, Maryland. Aisha joined the Baltimore USEAC in October 2010. Her primary responsibilities involve promoting Maryland exports abroad including, assisting small and medium sized firms enter international markets by connecting them with qualified international partners. She is responsible for the following industries in Maryland: energy; agriculture; processed foods; design/construction and education.

Prior to her position with the USEAC, Aisha served as an Import Policy Communications Specialist in Import Administration at the U.S. Department of Commerce's headquarters in Washington, D.C. In this capacity, Aisha worked on policy matters relating to unfair trade practices and managed public, congressional, and intergovernmental inquiries and correspondence.

Aisha has been employed with the U.S. Department of Commerce since 2004. She holds a B.A. in Political Science from Morgan State University.