

Brian Castleberry is the Regional Manger for Africa, the Middle East and Canada for the Maryland Department of Commerce. He manages offices in Durban, Dubai and Montreal. Through his office in Baltimore, Brian assists Maryland companies with all aspects of trade, such as market assessment reports, relevant industry contacts or potential commercial partners, and market insight into opportunities and challenges for your business.

He holds degrees from the University of Maryland and University of Baltimore and lives in Columbia, MD with his wife and two children.