

Carolyn Yarina, Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder, manages Sisu’s strategy, business development, finances, and fundraising. Carolyn has raised over $3M of funding from investors including Steve Case, Camden Partners and Keiretsu Capital and grantors like USAID and the Gates Foundation. She has received numerous awards including Innovator of the Year, first place in South by Southwest Eco’s Startup Competition, won Baltimore’s Rise of the Rest with Steve Case, and was a TEDx Mid-Atlantic speaker. Prior to Sisu, Carolyn founded a medical device non-profit working with rural mobile clinics in India. She raised over $100k in cash and in-kind services and was featured in Entrepreneur Magazine and Business Insider. While getting her Chemical Engineering Degree at the University of Michigan, Carolyn was named Entrepreneur of the Year for her first company.