

Dr. Remi Duyile

Dr. Remi Duyile has Over 35 years of combined experience, and accomplishment as an International executive leader and project manager with a proven record of innovation, effective communication, and ability to enhance team performance and deliver results.

She managed over 600 financial portfolios for high net worth companies in the financial Institution in tune of millions of dollars. Her 17 years Career span in Corporate America Banking range from retail, commercial, private and mortgage banking, where she rose from teller to Vice President in the 90s. She is a serial entrepreneur doing it big globally with her sound experience and exposure. Certified John Maxwell coach , speaker and trainer. A Les Brown Platinum Speaker. Remi is the President Of Image Consulting Group, Board chair of African Union Pan African Diaspora Women Association USA, Member of the National coalition of the 100 Black women (NCBW) and Chair NABF Economic & Finance Group to mention a few.

She bagged her undergraduate and MBA from the University of the District of Columbia in 1987 in Washington DC.

Dr. Duyile an eloquent International Keynote speaker is intentionally active in the Diaspora and abroad impacting the next generation and being a business bridge to Global Investors. She is an astute legislative advocate and trusted community leader. An example of how faith, hard work and perseverance can lead to numerous exposure and growth. Fondly supported by her loving husband for over 28years and her adorable grown responsible young adults.