

Portia Wu

Secretary, Maryland Department of Labor

Portia Wu is the Secretary of the Maryland Department of Labor, appointed by Governor Wes Moore. The Department is a diverse agency focused on connecting workers to jobs, supporting businesses, and protecting workers, consumers, and the public. Its programs encompass workforce training, adult and correctional education, occupational and professional licensing, worker safety, wage and hour, unemployment insurance, and financial regulation. Wu has held numerous roles in the public and private sectors.